FEARING IS A WONDER.

His Bounding High Jump Knocked Out the Great Page Record.

G. R. FEARING.

The all round athlete, G. R. Fearing, of Harvard college, astonished the sporting world at the games of the Boston athletic associations recently by making the most phenomenal running high jump in history. This world's record of 6 ft. 1 1/2 in., made by W. B. Page, of the Manhattan A. C., in 1887, had never been approached until the other night, when the young Harvard crack smashed it. Fearing made a number of trials, and to the wonder of all easily cleared 6 feet. Then Fearing went at the bar again and cleared 6 ft. 1 1/2 in. Yet again the young athlete whispered "Excelsior" to himself and tackled the task before him.

He had already broken the record, but was not satisfied. At his last jump he scored 6 ft. 3 1/2 in. which is 4 1/2 inches higher than the record of A. Nicholson, amateur champion of America for 1890.

Two of Fearing's fellow contestants also did remarkable work, J. A. Morse, of the B. A. A., and A. H. Green, of the M. A. C., both clearing over 6 feet.

Pitcher George S. Haddock.

George S. Haddock, the new pitcher of the Boston American Association team, was such an enthusiastic Bostonian that he refused $3,500 for a Pittsburgh berth and remained at home on $3,000. Haddock is a rising young pitcher, and one of the handiest men in the business. He was born at Portsmouth, N. H., about twenty-three years ago. He is nearly 6 feet in height, and enters the box at 160 pounds. In 1887 Haddock played in several Western association teams. In 1888 he played at Albany, N. Y., and finished the season with Washington. He remained with the senators during 1889, and joined the Buffalo Brotherhood team in 1890. Haddock has the reputation of being a swift and brawny pitcher.

SPORTING NOTES.

George Kessler, the Montana pugilist who recently bested "The Marine," has challenged any man in the world to fight him at 155 pounds.

Elliott, the great wing shot, is arranging for a world's tourney, at which the winner will be given a $10,000 trophy for the highest score at live bird shooting.

It is said that Arthur A. Zimmerman, the famous New Jersey bicyclist, captured $1,800 worth of prizes during the season of 1890. Zimmerman will make a tour of England during the coming season, and test the mettle of the best British amateurs.

Labor Gumborg, the great chess player, soon after his defeat by William Steinitz at New York, played thirty of the best men of a chess club at Baltimore, Md., simultaneously, and won twenty-four games, lost one to J. Reaney, Jr., and fought the remaining five to a draw.

Barney Allen, an Australian bookmaker, says he is anxious to back Jim Hall, middle weight champion of Australia, against Bob Fitzsimmons for $3,000 or $10,000.

It is said that John Owen, Jr., the Detroit Athletic club sprinter who holds the amateur record for 100 yards (9.4-5s.), will run no more, as his business will prevent him from training properly.

The Amateur Athletic union has signified its disapproval in the charges of professionalism against A. F. Copeland, the great hurdler; J. S. Mitchell, the hammer thrower; and C. A. J. Quekener, the well known hurler of weights.

A scene from "Franklin."

Sir Arthur Sullivan's new opera, "Franklin," although it has been on the stage but a few weeks, is already becoming an old story to newspaper readers. We present, however, a sketch of one of the most scenic scenes—where Rebecca (Miss MacIntyre) is bound to the stake.

The New Victoria Theatre.

It is said that the new theatre which Mr. Vickar will build in Chicago on the site of the one recently burned will be the finest and most modern of any theatre in the city, and will be opened May 11 by the "Blue Jeans" company with precisely the same cast which has appeared at New York. Judith Beethly, by the way, who does such strong work as the adventures in this production, is said to have signed with its managers for next season, as has also Jennie Remondy, George Fawcett, the heavy villain, and one of the most powerful young actors in the theatre in America, will, it is rumored, join one of the Broadway stock companies before long.

THE PATRONS OF THE OCEANIC S. S. CO. are hereby notified that hereafter no round trip or excursion tickets will be issued for any of the through mail steamers. These tickets will, however, be issued as customary for the local steamers "Australia" and "Zealandia." Passengers who hold round trip tickets and wish to make the through mail steamer will be charged an extra fare of $25.

Per order of the Oceanic S. S. Co. Wm. G. IRWIN & CO., General Agents.
